Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., July 14.-The Rev. The the continuous wrangle of both teams. In | Rev. Mr. Samson also takes exceptions to the fifth Umpire Latham was compelled to the action of the Rev. Mr. Powell, and says: remove both Captain Cooley and Dusty |"I believe that some of the enterprising and overzealous ministers had better take hold of some of the greater evils in the city and leave the lesser ones, such as Sunday baseball, alone. Some of our brother minsters in this city show very little ministerial dignity in their actions in coming before the public in such an unenviable light, through the course pursued by them in their fight against Sunday baseball. The ball game at League Park neither concerns me nor any other pastor. It is out of our jurisdiction. It is strange that the minister and the saloonkeeper are working together in harmony in the Sunday baseball agitation, The Rev. Sherman Powell's action on ast Sunday was certainly undignified. To disguise oneself in the manner he did was not coming out in his true colors. It is a stigma on the other ministers in this city and we are getting some undeserved notoriety. I believe that God has placed us here to preach the simple gospel of Christ, but not to do police duty. We must leave that o the proper authorities.'

To Play Ball for Charity. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 14.-A novel game of baseball will be played in Milwaukee on July 29, the proceeds of which will go to the victims of the New Richmond tornado. Governor Scofield and Mayor Rose will be the opposing pitchers in the initial innings. Ex-Governor George W. Peck will umpire the game. It is expected the gate receipts will amount o several thousand dollars.

William Coughlin, Wilkesbarre's third baseman, has been sold to Washington for Jimmie Ryan, the oldest player in the big League, made two home runs in the first Chicago-Boston game this week.

Comiskey says if he had his choice of the Indianapolis fielders he would prefer Mc-Farland to either Hogriever or Hartzell. The Cincinnati club has purchased the release of outfielder Waldron, of Milwaukee, but he will not join the Reds until the Western League season closes.

The Cleveland players are deserving of praise for trying so hard to win with the odds all against them. For a losing team they certainly try hard, and fight hard for Torreyson, of Grand Rapids, wants $700 bonus from Loftus before consenting to Monsieur Mannassau, the umpirical Frenchman now on President Young's staff, s a very erratic performer upon the diamond. His work is as emotional as that of a fox terrier among a colony of rats. In nearly all the games this season, two

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 14.-Indianapolis triumphed to-day over Milwaukee in a game which abounded in brilliant plays and hard hitting, the victory for the Hoosiers being due almost wholly to the batting and base running of Hogriever, who achieved the enviable record of making five hits in as many times at bat, and one of his drives was for three bases. Milwaukee hit Scott harder than the score indicates, but he was splendidly supported. Hartzell distinguished himself in the outfield, and Allen cut off base hits at short. In the third inning Rettger strained a cord in his left leg, necessitating his retirement from the game, Reidy taking his place and pitching successfully. and Waldron was fine.

sacrificed him to third and he scored on Hogriever's single. Reidy passed Hartzell to his base after Rettger retired, but Motz hit to Barnes, and Hogriever scored. Allen made the sixth inning notable by hitting the ball over the left-field fence for a home run, and in the seventh Hogriever scored the last run credited to Indianapolis, hitting for a bag, going to second on Hartzell's sacrifice, stealing third when Speer threw to second and going home on a fly to center by Motz. Weaver scored the opening tally for the Brewers in the fourth, hitting safely and coming home on Bray's two-bagger. With two strikes hanging over him in the sixth, Nicol singled, stole second and scored on Weaver's second hit. The Brewers looked wicked in the ninth, when Weaver began with a hit, but the next three died easily. Score:
